DETAILED ACTION

Amendments made 2/2/09 have been entered.
Claims 1-13 remain pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ezaki (JP App # 60230711) in view of Hui (ed.) (Dairy Science and Technology Handbook). The references and rejection are incorporated herein and as cited in the office action mailed October 1, 2008.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-13 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as not patentably distinct from claims 1, 2, and 4 of commonly assigned copending Application No. 11/891,208 ('208). The references and rejection are incorporated herein and as cited in the office action mailed October 1, 2008.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed February 2, 2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that there is no teaching or suggestion in the reference of the confection being allowed to expand. Applicant's argument is not convincing. When referring to Figure 1, Ezaki teaches that there is a space between the sliding surface and the mold cavities (Page 4 lines 15-20), thus teaching that there is space to allow the confection to expand outside the open cavity. Ezaki teaches that the confection fills not only the depressions or molds (Figure 1, 17 and 8), but also the grooves (Figure 1, 26b). Refer specifically to page 9 lines 11-15. Thus, Ezaki teaches that the frozen confection, which includes ice cream, is outside the open cavity prior to the open cavities moving towards one another and closing as recited in claim 1, c and claim 13, c. Furthermore, applicant claims a frozen aerated confection and discloses ice cream as the frozen aerated confection in the specification; applicant claims that the confection is "allowed" to expand and does not require any steps to provoke or excite the expansion; thus, it would be an inherent property of the confection or ice cream to expand when allowed. Since Ezaki teaches of substantially the same type of confection, i.e. an ice cream, as instantly claimed by applicant and teaches that there is sufficient space for the confection to expand, one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made would expect the confection as taught by Ezaki to expand outside its open cavity as instantly claimed absent any clear and convincing arguments and/or evidence to the contrary. Applicant is reminded that where the claimed and prior art products are identical or substantially identical in structure or composition, or are produced by identical or substantially identical processes, a prima facie case of either anticipation or obviousness has been established. In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 1255, 195

USPQ 430, 433 (CCPA 1977). "When the PTO shows a sound basis for believing that the products of the applicant and the prior art are the same, the applicant has the burden of showing that they are not." In re Spada, 911F.2d 705, 709, 15 USPQ2d 1655, 1658 (Fed. Cir. 1990).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
